

In the Court of Appeals of the State of Alaska

Robert Thomas Shedlosky,
Appellant,

v.

State of Alaska,
Appellee.

Court of Appeals Nos. A-12821/A-12879

Order

Allow Sur-Reply

Date of Notice: 5/6/19

Trial Court Case No. 3PA-16-00867CR / 3AN-10-04211CR

The State recently requested permission to file a sur-reply in this appeal. The Court granted the request. But in doing so, because the Court mistakenly believed that the time for the Appellant to oppose the State's request had passed, the Court issued its order prior to the due date for an opposition. The Appellant has since filed a timely opposition to the State's request. The Court will therefore consider the State's request de novo. See Appellate Rule 503(d).

Upon the Court's de novo review of the State's request and the Appellant's opposition,

IT IS ORDERED:

Because of the brevity of the State's sur-reply, the State's request that this Court accept a sur-reply is GRANTED. Additionally, the Court will have available and will consider the Appellant's opposition when resolving this appeal.

Entered under the authority of Chief Judge Allard.
